01:35:55 harriette: this is a basic question. anyone have advise what kind of scissor or cutting implement works best to get in those small spaces and cut out those detail stencils and circles with the kind of precision she has?

01:40:57 Teri Power: how do you spell goodio?

01:41:03 amanda thackray: i would use a sharp scalpel blade

01:41:12 harriette: okay thank u

01:41:29 amanda thackray: for cutting, you can get different types of blades. and change often, to make sure it is sharp!

01:43:12 Sarah Stengle: I love my Teflon coated bee sting scissors fo fine cutting. They have very sharp points and are not the best for long straight cuts, Excellence for collage or clipping book cloth corners.
