The Rutgers University-Newark (RU-N) Office of Research and Sponsored Programs (ORSP) provides support to faculty, students, and staff from across RU-N who are working to secure external funding for their research projects and academic programs.

How Can We Help? RU-N ORSP's staff members are available to meet with you to talk about your research and academic project interests and connect you to various resources designed to help you find funding and collaborative opportunities. We welcome researchers at all levels of expertise and look forward to talking with you about a specific proposal as well as exploring ideas and possibilities for support of your research, outreach, training, and other academic projects. Please contact us to arrange an individual meeting, a presentation, or a seminar for small groups.

You may want to explore some on-line resources and databases available to all members of the RU-N community even before meeting with us. These include:

- Pivot (<https://pivot.proquest.com/>) contains information on over 25,000 funding opportunities for over $50 billion. These awards are available from federal, state, and foundation funding sources. In addition, personal profiles may be created which allow users to have a personal research profile.
- Grants.gov lists federal grant funding opportunities (<https://www.grants.gov/web/grants/search-grants.html>)
- Foundation Directory Online (<http://www.libraries.rutgers.edu/indexes/fconline>) The Foundation Directory Online (Professional) provides information on more than 100,000 foundations, corporate giving programs, and grant making public charities in the US.
- GRADFUND (<http://gradfund.rutgers.edu/index.php>) provides valuable information and resources for graduate students as well as a database of grant opportunities.

Do you have questions about how to interpret institutional and sponsor policies and regulations? Please consult our website (<http://researchoffice.newark.rutgers.edu/>) or give us a call. We can help you find the policy and the policy professional best prepared to address your needs.

We look forward to working with you!
