

Rutgers Climate Symposium 2024

Signals – Climate Change Communication for Understanding and Action

Wednesday, November 13, 2024

Douglass Student Center

100 George St, New Brunswick, NJ

Poster abstracts due November 1, 2024.

Register to attend in person by November 7.

Posters can be on any scholarly climate change research.

Scan the QR code to visit our website!

FEATURING

Katherine Blunt, Author and Journalist

William Hallman, Distinguished Professor of Human Ecology, Rutgers University

Benjamin Santer, Atmospheric Scientist, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute & University of California at Los Angeles

Julia Watson, Landscape Designer, Julia Watson LLC & Lo-TEK Institute

The Rutgers Climate Symposium fosters collaboration among researchers and students across all disciplines from institutions in the Mid-Atlantic region who are interested in climate change, renewable energy, energy efficiency, or other approaches to reducing greenhouse gas emissions.

Symposium free for students, faculty and staff of academic and research institutions. Complete details at <https://ruclimatesymposium.rutgers.edu/>

Rutgers Climate Symposium is made possible through the generous support of the Frank Sposato Memorial Endowment.

RUTGERS-NEW BRUNSWICK
Climate and Energy Institute